George Gascoignes (Central School), Queens Road, Walthamstow – 1939

Telegram to my mother Kathleen Fryer (late Mrs Ken Stevens) after she ran off from the WRENS refusing to be a barmaid in the officers' mess. She went back and did more serious war work!

My mother Kathleen Fryer in WREN'S uniform. She lived at 2 Jessie Cottages Low Hall Lane Walthamstow

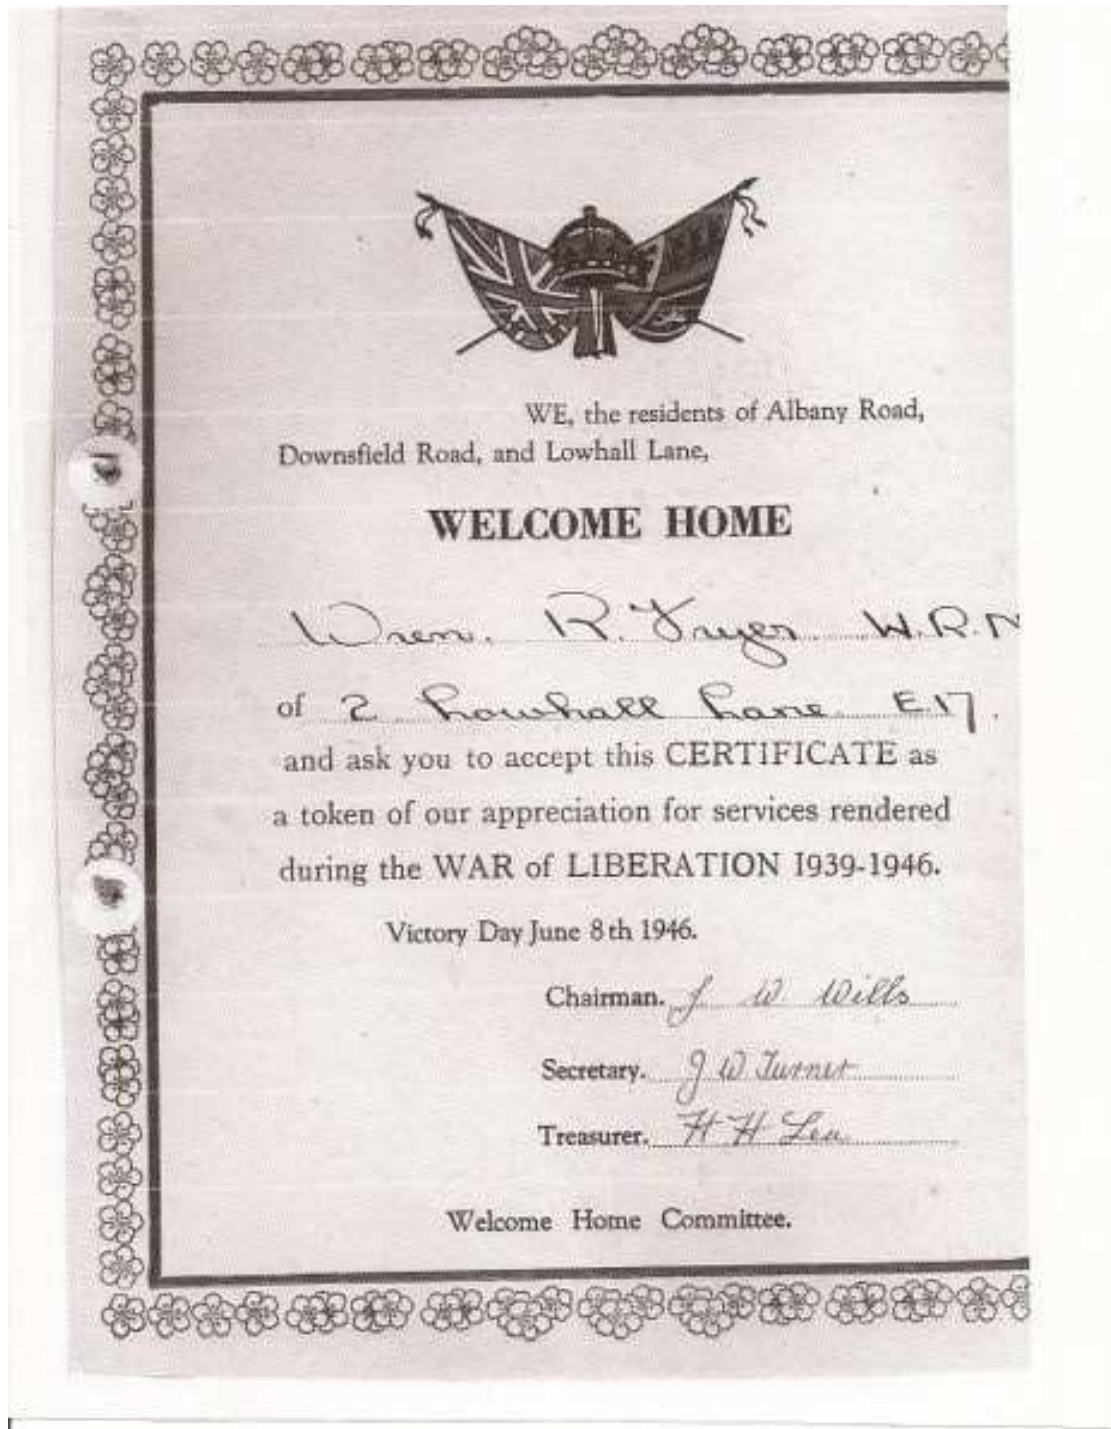

My baptism certificate

My maternal Grandmother Alice Rose Fryer nee Southgate taken as is believed in Walthamstow in the early twentieth century before she married Jack Fryer and they moved to 2, Jessie Cottages Low Hall Lane Walthamstow

My maternal Grandmother Mrs Jack Fryer and Jack Fryer outside St Saviours Walthamstow in 1948 when their daughter Kathleen Fryer married Kenneth Harry Stevens. ie my Mum and Dad!
The Fryers lived at 2, Jessie Cottages Low Hall Lane Walthamstow.

Certificate of thanks given to mother of Barrie Stevens then Miss Kathleen Fryer (WREN Fryer) of 2, Jessie Cottages Low Hall Lane Walthamstow.

My Great Uncle Harry (George Harry Southgate) He was brother to my Maternal Grandmother Alice Rose Fryer Nee Southgate and lived at 1, Jessie Cottages Low Hall Lane from the early twentieth century until his death in the early 1960s. In this picture with his wife Lily, taken I suppose in the 1940s-50s. (In the garden of 1 Jessie Cottages Low Hall Lane, hard to say...) Their son was drafted into the RAF in the early 1940s and became Air Vice Marshall Harry Southgate CB and I think is still alive. He went to St Saviour's School Markhouse Road, Walthamstow as did my mother. Uncle Harry was a bookies' runner.

Air Vice Marshall Harry Southgate son of George Harry Southgate (Uncle Harry). They lived at 1, Jessie Cottages Low Hall Lane. Air Vice Marshall Southgate left school and worked in a local coal yard. He went to St Saviour's School then in Markhouse Road. He was drafted into the RAF in the early 1940s and rose through the ranks to be an Air Vice Marshall

Below are some cartoons done in the trenches of France in WW 1 by my Great Uncle Harry (George Harry Southgate):

Air raid problems

Servant - The best place to get, 'mam, is in the 'all, 'cause if one lands in the front we can go out at the back!

Telling the tale - Another little one!

Below: What! You don't know me?
